VOLUME CVI.---NO. 59. ALEXANDRIA, VA., FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 10, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

TIRED OUT.

There's many a wife sits in the growing shadows of an evening, knowing what it is to feel tired out; as if there was not another ounce of effort left in her. But if healthy she knows how sound her slumber will be and how refreshed the morning will find her. But it's another thing for the sick woman to feel tired out. Rest only seems to increase her suffering. She feels acutely the aching back and throbbing nerves.

Sick women, hundreds of thousands of them, have been made well by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I am pleased to inform you of the benefit I received from using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery'" writes Mrs. Elizabeth A. Oswold, of 45 Brant Street, Windsor, Essex Co., Ontario, Canada. "Was quite discouraged when I wrote asking your advice, as the physicians here told me I could get no relief except by an operation. Suffered for four years from irregular and profuse menstruation, had sick and nervous headaches most of the time, and at times could hardly walk across the floor from weakness. I thank God there is such a remedy as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for suffering women. Before I had taken the first bottle the headaches had left me and it was not long before regularity was established and still continues so. Have just finished house-cleaning which I never expected to be able to do again, and can truly say I never felt better than at present. I gladly recommend 'Favorite Prescription' to all who suffer from female weakness. It has cured me and made me stronger in every way. Neither my husband nor myself can say enough in its praise."

The selfish seller who urges some substitute is thinking of the larger profit he'll make and not of your best good.

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE.

Biology has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality; causing itching scalp, falling hair, and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. It is the only destroyer of dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

STRIKE REPUDIATED.

The most interesting development in the subway and elevated railway strike situation in New York yesterday was the stand taken by some of the national labor leaders in repudiating the action of the local leaders, who ordered and are conducting the strike.

The first intimation the public had that the strike was indorsed by the national union came in a statement from Grand Chief Warren S. Stone, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, to which the motormen belong. Mr. Stone insisted that the strike was a violation of the laws of the national union, the men having broken their contract with the Interborough Company. He ordered the men to report for duty, failing which expulsion from the organization is threatened. In his statement Grand Chief Stone says:

"It has been reported to me that many of our members have been misled by statements that the grand officers had given consent to this strike. This is not correct; no request was made nor granted, nor were the officers of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers consulted in the present situation. This is the first time in the history of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers that our members have repudiated their agreement with any railroad. Labor organizations must keep their part of the agreements inviolate if they expect to succeed. Had our laws been complied with conditions as they now appear could not exist on the lines of the Interborough Company."

William L. Jencks, head of the local Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, declared that he did not recognize Mr. Stone's statement as having any influence upon him or upon the strike. "Mr. Stone cannot dictate to me," said Mr. Jencks. "Shall he tell us whether we shall have supper or not? The men were ordered out, are out, and will stay out until the strike is won. Things are going beautifully, and prospects were never brighter for us since the strike was begun."

Jencks made this statement in the midst of a group of the strikers, who cheered him loudly when they heard his words.

Timothy Healey, president of the International Brotherhood of Stationary Firemen, when asked whether he would call out the members of his organization replied: "No, I'm not going to call them out."

"Have you been asked by Mr. Pepper or Mr. Jencks, or anybody else to call them out?" was asked.

"If Mr. Pepper asked me to call out the fireman," replied Mr. Healey, "I would not do so. I would not recognize Mr. Pepper's power to make any such request. Before I would call out the men I would have to be asked to do so by President Mahon. Mr. Mahon has not asked me to do so."

President W. D. Mahon, of the National Association of Electric and Street Railway Employes, said, when asked what effect the attitude of Warren E. Stone, president of the National Organization of Locomotive Engineers, would have upon the strike situation: "As far as I am concerned Mr. Stone's attitude will make no difference whatever. Mr. Stone's organization and mine are entirely distinct and separate, and what he may see fit to do will not affect my conduct in the least."

Harry Johnson, secretary or the local Union of Locomotive Engineers, in an interview supported Mr. Jencks, saying the men would not go back to work until they had won their point, the local union having sufficient money to carry on the strike without aid from the national union.

Notwithstanding the efforts of the local leaders, there were indications around strike headquarters that at least some of the men were ready to give up the fight against the company. Those who from the start were opposed to the strike find the action of the national leaders an excellent excuse to return to their posts. Early yesterday evening several of the old subway motormen were found in charge of their regular trains, and admitted that they had taken Mr. Stone's advice. The service in the subway last night was almost perfect, the local trains being run during the rush hours on schedule time, while the express trains maintained a three-minute headway. At no time was there anything resembling a congestion, the usual homegoing crowds being handled without a single accident.

Messrs. Stone and W. B. Hurley left for Cleveland last night. As they were leaving Mr. Stone said: "The strike is virtually over. We have accomplished our mission and are going home well satisfied."

Ravages of Bubonic Plague.

A dispatch from Calcutta says that the deaths from the bubonic plague last week numbered 34,000. Statistics show that the mortality from the plague in India within a few years reached nearly 3,000,000. In 1903 the mortality in India from the plague alone was 850,000. The number of deaths recorded last week, while extraordinary, is not unprecedented. The infection recently spread to Murmab, where it is making rapid strides. This season of the year always favors its spread. The Indian government is making every effort to eradicate it, destroying by burning whole sections of towns, and segregating the inhabitants. But owing to the climate and the sanitary condition of the outlying districts and native sections of the towns, it is difficult to cope with the epidemic, which breaks out continually at fresh points. The deaths are said to be 90 per cent. of those infected. As a result of the plague the labor supply for the manufacturing centers has seriously depreciated. So long has the plague existed in India that the native population regard it callously.

Like Finding Money.

Finding health is like finding money—so think those who are sick. When you have a cough, cold, sore throat or chest irritation, better act promply like W. C. Barber, of Sandy Level, Va. He says: "I had a terrible chest trouble, caused by smoke and coal dust on my lungs; but, after finding no relief in other remedies, I was cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds." Greatest sale of any cough or lung medicine on earth. At E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store; 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

A Dinner Invitation.

After a hearty meal a dose of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will prevent an attack of Indigestion. Kodol is a thorough digestant and a guaranteed cure for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gas on the Stomach, Sour Risings, Bad Breath and all stomach troubles. N. Watkins, Lesbus, Ky., says: "I can testify to the efficacy of Kodol in the cure of Stomach Trouble. I was afflicted with Stomach Trouble for fifteen years and have taken six bottles of your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which has entirely cured me. The six bottles were worth $1,000 to me." Sold by all druggists.

Nothing will cure Indigestion that dosen't digest the food and give the stomach a rest. It isn't necessary to starve yourself in order to rest your stomach—take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It will digest any quantity of all the wholesome food you want to eat while your stomach takes a rest—recuperates and grows strong. This wonderful preparation is justly entitled to all of its many remarkable cures. Sold by all druggists.

Backache, "The Blues"

Both Symptoms of Organic Derangement in Women—Thousands of Sufferers Find Relief.

How often do we hear women say: "It seems as though my back would break," or "Don't speak to me, I am all out of sorts?" These significant remarks prove that the system requires attention.

Backache and "the blues" are direct symptoms of an inward trouble which will sooner or later declare itself. It may be caused by diseased kidneys or some uterine derangement. Nature requires assistance and at once, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound instantly asserts its curative powers in all those peculiar ailments of women. It has been the standby of intelligent American women for twenty years, and the ablest specialists agree that it is the most universally successful remedy for woman's ills known to medicine.

The following letters from Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. Cotrely are among the many thousands which Mrs. Pinkham has received this year from those whom she has relieved.

Surely such testimony is convincing.

Mrs. J. G. Holmes, of Larimore, North Dakota, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I have suffered everything with backache and womb trouble—I let the trouble run on until my system was in such a condition that I was unable to be about, and then it was I commenced to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If I had only known how much suffering I would have saved, I should have taken it months sooner—for a few weeks' treatment made me well and strong. My backaches and headaches are all gone and I suffer no pain at my menstrual periods, whereas before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I suffered intense pain."

Mrs. Emma Cotrely, 109 East 12th Street, New York City, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I feel it my duty to tell all suffering women of the relief I have found in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I commenced taking the Compound I suffered everything with backaches, headaches, menstrual and ovarian troubles. I am completely cured and enjoy the best of health, and I owe it all to you."

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhœa, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles. Refuse to buy any substitute.

FREE ADVICE TO WOMEN.

Remember, every woman is cordially invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham if there is anything about her symptoms she does not understand. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass., her advice is free and cheerfully given to every ailing woman who asks for it. Her advice and medicine have restored to health more than one hundred thousand women.

Alexandria Gazette AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, MAR. 10, 1905.

THE STRUGGLE over the Santo Domingo protocol began in the Senate yesterday, and the fight promises to be the most determined waged over any treaty since that which concluded the war with Spain and involved the possession of the Philippines. The Senate committee on foreign relations, as stated in the Gazette, agreed by a strictly party vote to report the treaty favorably as amended. Whether this division of the committee means a similar division of the Senate itself when the treaty comes to be voted upon is the cause of considerable speculation. There will be a long debate. The republicans are unlikely to consent to the taking of a vote until they, by counting noses, feel sure that they have the necessary strength to succeed. The belief is general that the amendments made in committee to the treaty have disarmed much of the opposition. The administration is working hard to save the treaty from rejection in the first place and then from amendment in particulars which would render it useless for some of the purposes for which it was framed. Republican Senators known to be lukewarm in their support of the treaty and democratic Senators supposed to be lukewarm in their opposition to it are being earnestly appealed to by members of the administration, with a view to getting them in line for ratification and against the amendments to which the President and Secretary Hay most strongly object. The suggested amendments are those seeking to embody in the treaty a declaration that the Monroe doctrine is not involved in the Santo Domingo affair, and that the course to be pursued by the United States in effecting a settlement of the Dominican external debt shall not form a precedent for action with regard to any other Central or South American country. The reason for this is that the administration has from the first intended to use the Dominican treaty as a warning to President Castro, of Venezuela, of what might happen to him and his government if he persists in refusing or neglecting to settle the asphalt controversy with the United States and the debts owed by Venezuela to several European nations. It was the further purpose of the administration, it is understood, to use the Dominican treaty as a precedent for forcible action against Venezuela in case Castro failed to heed the warning involved in its negotiation and ratification by the Senate.

THE SUDDEN collapse of the strike of the subway and elevated railway operatives in New York was a surprise to most people, as such movements are generally allowed more or less time in which to run their course. The prompt action, however, of the national association of railway employees in repudiating the strike and the more drastic measure when the charter of the New York division was revoked, has virtually left the strikers nothing upon which to stand save an insane desire to please labor agitators, who have boldly stated that the strike was inaugurated in order to revenge themselves upon a certain official of the subway. Many of the operators are now loud in their denunciation of the action of the leaders in calling the men out and are equally severe upon themselves for obeying the order. An old Arabic proverb admonishes us to closely consider the outcome ere we embark in any enterprise; it would have been well for the New Yorkers to have heeded it. The prompt action of the grand body in repudiating certain disturbors of the peace will be hailed with delight not only by people in New York, who have been so seriously inconvenienced, but by well-disposed folks everywhere.

THE FATE of war is still against Russia in her conflict with Japan, and General Kuropatkin is coming out second best in his test of military skill with Field Marshal Oyama. From the dispatches received today from the far East it looks as though the Russian army is in danger of capture or annihilation, as the advices (even from St. Petersburg) show plainly that Kuropatkin has been worsted, and that his position is precarious. It is positively asserted that the Japanese have cut the railroad and there is reason to believe they will obtain possession of the pass in the mountains. The fighting during the past few days has been from a sanguinary standpoint almost unparalled in the world's history, and the heroism displayed by both armies is almost unprecedented. One dispatch places the losses at 100,000; another states that 8,000 dead Russians were left on the field, a St. Petersburg bulletin admitting that 7,000 were left stark and stiff in death. The occupation of Mukden by the Japanese has been accomplished. This bloody conflict has been going on for over a year and, so far as can be seen, it is likely to be continued for some time yet.

U. S. SENATOR WILLIAM BRIMAGE BATE, of Tennessee, who, as stated yesterday, died in Washington that day, aged 78 years, was twice Governor of his State, and a veteran of both the Mexican and civil wars. He was born near Castalion Springs, Tenn., October 7, 1826, and received an academic education. He served as a private throughout the Mexican war in Louisiana and Tennessee regiments. He was a presidential elector in 1860 on the Breckenridge-Lane ticket and was private, captain, colonel, brigadier general and major general in the Confederate service, surrendering with the Army of the Tennessee in 1865. He was three times dangerously wounded. At the close of the war he returned to Tennessee and resumed the practice of law. In 1882 he was elected Governor of Tennessee and re-elected in 1884 without opposition. In January, 1887, he was elected to the United States Senate and on Saturday last entered upon his fourth term in that body. While not a brilliant speaker, he was a deep thinker, and his opinions always received due consideration from his colleagues. He was a democrat of the old school and devoted to the interests of his State which has lost an able son and a faithful representative of a class of statesmen who labored for the welfare of the people who sent them to Congress, as well as of the States collectively.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., March 10.

Lieutenant Governor Willard, of Virginia, was here yesterday and had a conference with some of his friends regarding his candidacy for the governorship of his State. Among those present were several from Alexandria.

It is stated here on high authority that the President has definitely decided to appoint Mr. L. P. Summers, of Abingdon, Va., to the position of collector of internal revenue in the Alexandria district, which position is now held by Mr. Park Agnew. Mr. Summers is strongly endorsed by Representative Slemp. It is understood that Mr. Agnew will send in his resignation to take effect on May 1st.

Official announcement of the fall of Mukden was received at the Japanese Legation at 1:20 this afternoon in a dispatch from the foreign office at Tokio. The dispatch reads: "Our troops occupied Mukden at 10 a. m., Friday. Our enveloping movements during the past few days proved entirely successful, and the bloodiest battle of the war is now progressing in various places about Mukden." A second dispatch to the Japanese Legation today from Tokio says: "A detachment of our troops has occupied Fushun and is now attacking the enemy in the heights north of that place."

Thomas M. Fields, at one time a prominent lawyer and society man here was arrested today in Chatham, New York by a local detective, on a warrant charging embezzlement and forgery. Fields while acting as receiver of the Washington Endowment Association appointed $20,000. The case was not brought to the attention of the police, however until a charge of forgery was preferred by A. A. Lipscomb, formerly a friend and brother attorney. Detective Tyser, the arresting officer, this morning informed Major of Police Sylvester that Fields was under arrest and would be brought to Washington.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Senator Wm. B. Bate, of Tennessee, were held in the Senate chamber at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Every Senator now in the city was present as well as a large number of Representatives. Among others especially invited by resolution of the Senate were the President, the members of his Cabinet, the Justices of the Supreme Court, the diplomatic corps, the admirals of the navy, and the lieutenant general of the army. Rev. Edward Everett Hale, chaplain of the Senate, officiated, assisted by Rev. Samuel H. Greene, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, and Rev. F. J. Prettyman, pastor of the Mount Vernon Place M. E. Church South, of which Senator Bate was a member. In the galleries were a number of Confederate veterans who had served with Senator Bate in the civil war. After the services the remains were left in the Senate chamber where they will lie in state until their departure for Nashville this evening. They will be taken in a special car of the Southern Railway on the train leaving here at 10.30 and will be accompanied by the Senate and House special committees, Senator Bate's widow and other members of the family who are now in Washington.

President Roosevelt announced at the Cabinet meeting today that the policy of the administration for the present at least would be to retain in office present incumbents without regard to their length of service. This will apply to all department of the government and is contrary to previous statements said to have been semi-official. Postmaster General Cortelyou who made public the announcement after the Cabinet meeting said that the policy would apply especially to the Postoffice Department. He made the statement owing to erroneous reports to the effect that the President would dismiss those who had served eight years or more in appointive offices. Another policy announced by the President at today's meeting is that hereafter he will not appoint to brigadier generals in the active service any colonels with civil war records who have served 40 years or more. Under the law such officers are entitled to retirement as brigadier generals, and they will be so retired. The President's purpose is to gradually get into the grade of brigadier general a younger set of men.

Seventy-four indictment and six convictions is the record to date of the federal government in its prosecution of the land fraud cases in the Pacific Coast States. Sixty-nine of the persons indicted or convicted are residents of Oregon, being former government officials, lawyers or business men. Three are residents of California, one of Kansas and one of Arizona. Five men have been tried and convicted of conspiracy and are awaiting sentence. Albert H. Tanner, Senator Mitchell's law partner has been convicted of perjury. There have been returned fifty two indictments for conspiracy; three for perjury; two for subordination of perjury; one for receiving money for service before government department (Senator Mitchell being the person indicated); one for offering a bribe to U. S. District Attorney Hall; and nine for obstructing the administration of justice.

The President today sent to the Senate the nomination of Col. Allan Smith, 6th Cavalry, to be a Brigadier General, retired.

Postmaster General Cortelyou today announced that there was no statement to be made at present relative to the investigation that has been ordered into certain files of the Bristow report of the postoffice investigation. The inspectors are going over the papers relating to the Bundy time recorder. It has been charged that Mr. Bristow shielded J. M. Masten, who was chief clerk under First Assistant Perry S. Heath, and who is now connected with the railway mail service. Masten was engaged with Mr. Bristow in the Cuban postal fraud investigation.

News of the Day.

Russia evidently fearful of British encroachments, is hurrying troops and military stores to the India frontier, and a Russian official says that sooner or later a conflict with Great Britain is inevitable.

The decision of the Peabody and Adams gubernatorial contest will be deferred until an opinion is received by the Colorado legislature from the State Supreme Court as to whether the legislature has power to declare the office of governor vacant.

Surrounded by a dog and several cats, to which she had given a home, the dead body of Mary Cowan was yesterday found lying on a couch in the kitchen of her home, in Bridesburg, Philadelphia, where she had lived as a recluse for over twenty-years with only animals as her companions.

Governor Vardaman, of Mississippi, yesterday issued a strong address to the peace officers of the State, declaring that the situation in Mississippi is becoming critical; that crime is rampant in all quarters of the commonwealth, and urging the officers to at once begin a crusade to clean out the dives and haunts of criminals.

GIGANTIC STRUGGLE.

A dispatch from Mukden dated last night says midnight closed the tenth day of the titanic struggle for the possesion of Mukden and the mastery of a vast empire; the tenth day of unceasing conflict under exploding shrapnel, the roar of cannon and the whistling of bullets; the tenth day without sleep and without food. The combat is fast reaching a point where it is a question not so much of turning columns, of tactics and of strategy as of whose strength, energy and cartridges will last the longer.

Gray coated Russians, patient, uncomplaining, strong of soul, clung doggedly to positions against an enemy whose attacks go to the very point of insanity and desperation. For 48 hours the Japanese have not eaten. They are starving and exhausted, but Field Marshal Oyama himself has told them that the city will fall and the slaughter stop on Friday, and their confidence in their leader increased their strength tenfold.

On Wednesday, when the Russians took Ushuntun, a few Japanese clung to the thick-walled temple and refused all overtures to surrender.

Cannons were brought up and breached the walls, but the daredevil courage of the defenders continued under the fire, and finally, when defense was hopeless, they blew themselves skyward with the ruins of the temple. One survivor, rather than surrender, threw himself into a stone-rimmed well and perished.

And yet the rank and file and inferior leaders, stern in the sense of duty, are as unsparing of themselves as of the men whom they lead to death. Stern Oyama drives and drives his troops northward to encircle the city. With every fresh flanking movement the iron band closes nearer and nearer the railroad, and under this menace the first and third armies were forced Wednesday night to abandon the mighty fortifications on the Shakhe river, give up the impregnable Poutiloff Hill and retire to the line of the Hun river.

Yesterday the Japanese were pushing their columns north and northeast, bombarding villages which are keys to the defense, and hurling men, some of them veteran's of the year's campaign, and others middle aged reserves fresh from Japan, against Russian positions. Often they are repulsed and sometimes they master the advanced line, but at enormous cost.

DISORDERS IN RUSSIA.

A dispatch from Kieff to the London Daily Mail says:

"An army of 300 peasants from the Orlovka district is advancing southwesterly. Burning and looting of estates is in progress. Eighteen estates have already been sacked. A strong military force has been sent to suppress the uprising."

Col. Progoulbitsky, governor of the Province of Kutais, has been the object of an attempted assassination by two men at Sukhum. The would-be murderers fired six shots from revolvers at the governor, but he was not struck. The motive of the attempt is believed to have been political.

A telegram from Ekaterinoslav, South Russia, says that five miners have been killed and fifteen wounded in a conflict between strikers of the Shoerbinoff mines, and soldiers in the district of Bakhmut. The strikers started looting, and the troops threatened to shoot. The former thereupon fired at the soldiers with revolvers, and also threw stones at them, whereupon the troops fired a volley and order was restored.

The Baltic provinces, the Russification of which was regarded as practically completed, have been encouraged by recent developments to again demand the restoration of some or all of their ancient rights. A well-developed moment, backed by the nobles and intelligent classes, is now openly demanding that the teaching of German in the schools be revived, and that native officials conduct the administration of provincial affairs.

A report which reached Warsaw that Mukden had fallen was received with ill-concealed pleasure. The newspapers wished to publish the report, but were peremptorily forbidden by the censor to do so. It was quickly circulated, however, and was the subject of almost jubilant comment in the cafes and elsewhere. One of the assistant commissioners of the police was fatally shot at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening by anunknown assailant who escaped.

Mr. Bryan Loses Suit.

The Supreme Court of Connecticut yesterday handed down a decision in the Philo S. Bennett will case in which William J. Bryan has figured as a possible beneficiary to the extent of $50,000, as provided in a "sealed letter" left by Mr. Bennett, and finds no error. The decision upholds the Superior Court, which rendered judgment to the effect that the clause in Mr. Bennett's will containing the paragraph in regard to the $50,000 to be left to Mr. Bryan is inoperative, and that the said fund is a part of the residuary estate.

Mr. Bryan appealed from this decision, and the result is as previously stated. The Superior Court having held that the "sealed letter" was no part of the will, the only question to decide on was its contents as a testamentary document. Clause 12 of the will leaves $50,000 to Mrs. Bennett in trust with no purpose while the sealed letter says that the money is left to William J. Bryan.

The Supreme Court holds that the Superior Court is right in deciding that the clause is inoperative. In its decision the Supreme Court yesterday says in part:

"No effect can be given this 'sealed letter' as a part of the will, even if evidence was offered to prove that it was in existence and known to the testator at the time the will was executed. To treat this letter as an operative declaration of trust would be in effect to hold that testamentary disposition of property could be made by an instrument not executed in conformity with the statutes regulating such transfers of properties."

The opinion goes into the history of the will case in detail, reviewing it from the first contest over the admission of the "sealed letter" in New Haven before the Superior Court.

Counsel for Mr. Bryan, when asked last night if the case would be taken any higher, said that it would not be.

The dispatch from Hartford, Conn., announcing the decision of the Supreme Court in the Philo S. Bennett will case was read to Mr. Bryan over the telephone late last night at the conclusion of his lecture at Milwaukee. Mr. Bryan said he had not received any direct notice of the court's decision, and had no comment to make further than that he presumed the decision ends the contest.

JAPANESE CAPTURE MUKDEN.

Japanese Pushing On—Bloody Encounters—Thousands of Russians, Provisions, Guns, &c., Fall Into the Hands of the Japanese.

Tokio, March 10.—It is announced that the Japanese occupied Mukden at 10 o'clock this morning.

Tokio, March 10.—The most intense jubilation prevails here over the fall of Mukden. Patriotic processions formed in the streets and great crowds joined in the marching shouting "Banzai, Banzai" which freely translated is "Long live the Emperor" and waving flags. Ordinary traffic has been entirely suspended. The victory having been anticipated for several days, preparations are complete for an unparalleled demonstration tonight when a brilliant lantern parade will be held. There is a great difference of opinion here as to whether the great Japanese victory will mean peace. Those most capable of expressing an opinion decline to commit themselves, saying that everything depends on the Czar, and that it is impossible to say how he will take such an overwhelming defeat.

Yen Chow, China, March 10.—News that Mukden has fallen into the hands of the Japanese has been received here. Thousands of Russians were taken prisoners and large quantities of stores, including guns and provisions, were captured by the victorious Japanese.

St. Petersburg, March 10.—No details of the reported capture of a large Russian force near Tieling by General Nogi's army have been received here, and the War Office is not inclined to give credence to the reports.

Tokio, March 10.—A telegram to the War Department from Field Marshal Oyama gives details of yesterday's fighting. The dispatch says: "In the direction of Hingching our force continued the attack which had been in progress for several days. The enemy gave obstinate resistance in the strong positions in the neighborhood of Tita. Finally, at 8 a. m. on Thursday, we completely dislodged the Russians and are now pursuing them. Our force in the vicinity of Machuntan has continued in hot pursuit of the enemy toward Fushun. In the direction of the Shahke river east and south of Mukden we have pressed the entire force of the enemy back to the basin of the Hun river. Our forces stopped on the left bank of the Hun. We are now attacking the enemy's strong fortifications west and north of Mukden. Our attack against the enemy, who made obstinate resistance, was pushed vigorously. A heavy dust storm obscures the sun today, and the consequent darkness makes it impossible to obtain a view of the operations at any distance.

Tokio, March 10.—Dispatches received here confirm the report of the capture by the Japanese of Tita, ten miles north of Machuntan. The Russians are defending their fortifications north of the Hun river vigorously. A severe dust storm interferes with the progress of the battle at present.

Tokio, March 10.—The fighting which made the fall of Mukden possible occurred yesterday. It took place at the village of Dinshantun, six miles west of Mukden. The fighting was the bloodiest of this great battle. The Japanese stormed the place repeatedly and once dislodged the enemy, but the Russians by a desperate counter attack recaptured the place. Its possession was of vital importance to the Japanese and they reformed their lines time and again and resumed the attack. Dinshantun finally fell into the hands of the Japanese after desperate hand-to-hand fighting. Witnesses say the dead are scattered in the streets, court yards and houses and at last accounts still remained unburied. Once in possession of Dinshantun the Japanese were enabled to train their guns on the Mukden station and from this place they opened fire at dawn today. Late advices state that the Japanese are now concentrating their efforts seven miles north of Mukden and five miles west of the railroad, their object being to break through, cut off and surround the Russian troops below.

London, March 10.—News is anxiously awaited here regarding Gen. Kuropatkin's position. Nothing is known yet as to whether he will be able to cut his way through to Tieling. The latest telegrams indicate that if he attempts to get to Tieling he must go by way of Fushun. This will necessitate a march at right angles by the Russians, as they must first move eastward to Fushun, before striking northward for Tieling. If General Kuropatkin attempts this he will be compelled to fight a fearful rear guard action with the pursuing Japanese. If he is delayed by such a fight, it will give time for General Oku's force to advance directly north to Tieling, joining the armies of Generals Nodzu and Nogi, on the way, and allowing them to reach Tieling before General Kuropatkin. It is generally agreed by war experts that General Kuropatkin's position is one of the most desperate in the known history of warfare. If he succeeds in extricating even a part of his force, and reaching Tieling safely, the feat will rank him as the greatest master of retreat of modern times.

Moritaro Abe, Secretary of the Japanese Legation, in a statement to your correspondent, said: "We are not too sanguine that Field Marshal Oyama will be able to surround General Kuropatkin and compel him to surrender. It is too much to expect. We can encircle 500,000 men. We think it is probable that General Kuropatkin will be able to cut his way through with a small part of his force. We do not think that the occupation of Mukden will be sufficient in itself to bring about peace. The blow is not sufficiently crushing for this, but it is certain now that when peace comes Russia will be compelled to accept any terms Japan may present."

Parrot Saves Woman.

New York, March 10—While asleep in an armchair in the kitchen of her home, in Avenue V, Sheepshead Bay, last night, Mrs. Mary McLaughlin, seventy-nine years old, one of the oldest settlers on Long Island, fell over on an almost red hot stove, and was being slowly roasted to death when the screams of a parrot aroused the neighbors, who forced open the kitchen door and rescued her from being burned alive. The old old woman, who has no relatives, has lived alone more than six years.

COLLAPSE OF STRIKE.

Charter of Brotherhood Revoked—Strikers Applying for Work.

New York, March 10.—The subway lines are in better running condition today than any day since the strike began. Thousands came down to business this morning by the underground and the overhead lines. The company says that the full service has been restored in the subway and on the Third avenue elevated lines. The Second avenue lines are still running in a crippled condition. When many of the strikers returned to work this morning they were told by the company that the new men would rank them in seniority and that they must take their turns for advancement. Many of the strikers are in an angry mood today over the collapse of the strike and the small prospect of getting their jobs back, and the police are keeping careful watch for violence. George Welling, one of the subway guards, was the first man to apply for work at the company's offices this morning. "I have had my fill of unions," he said. "When I went to work in the tunnel I was told that to hold my job I would have to join the union. Later the company, through Mr. Hedley, denied any such statement. The strike was a foolish one, and you will never get me into another union where I can be put out of work by irresponsible leaders." Welling was the advance guard of a general body of strikers to apply for work and they, one and all, voiced Welling's sentiments. The strike and its failure has made the Interborough Company an "open shop." Three to four thousand men, most of them with families, will probably never be able to regain their old positions with the company, which has openly stated that it will not discharge any of the strike breakers who have shown themselves competent. The repudiation of the strike by Warren Stone, Grand Chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and W. D. Mahon, President of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employes, last night, was the knock-out blow to the strike, though Pepper and Jencks, the local leaders, declare that Stone and Mahon have nothing to do with the strike and that it will yet be won by the men.

Several letters of warning were received by General Manager Hedley, today, informing him that attempts will be made to blow up parts of the roads and the power houses.

There was a general home coming of the strikers to the company's offices throughout the day. The old men, were treated the same as new applicants.

Cleveland, O., March 10.—The charter of sub-division 105, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, to which the striking motormen in the great subway strike in New York belong, has had its charter taken away from it. Grand Chief Warren Stone arrived in Cleveland this morning at 8 o'clock. Immediately after his arrival a meeting of the grand officers of the Brotherhood was called at the headquarters of the organization in the Society of Savings Building, to discuss the matter of the subway strike. It did not take the officers long to arrive at a conclusion and at 9:30 a telegram was sent to the secretary of sub-division 105, to the effect that the division of the order was no longer affiliated with the national organization. In explanation of the action of the grand officers in recalling the charter of the sub-division, Grand Chief Stone said: "The present strike is not the doing of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and is being carried on by men claiming to represent the Brotherhood."

Finger Grafted Upon Other Woman's Hand.

New York, March 10.—For the first time in the history of medical science a finger was transferred today from the hand of one person to that of another. It was the last step in the grafting operation undertaken twenty-two days ago by Dr. Andrew L. Nelden. The principals were two women—one of them an actress—who met for the first time a day before they were bound together. They have been living like Siamese twins. The second finger of one woman's right hand was grafted to the stump of the second finger of the left hand of the actress. She lost all of the finger up to the second joint in a shooting accident several years ago. She paid the first woman $500 for the digit that is now on her hand. For twenty-four hours the actress's hand on which the digit was grafted will be kept in a strong saline solution. Then the flesh on top of the finger will be stitched to that of the stump. It will be kept in splints two weeks. Another woman called at the hospital to-day, and, showing a hand from which one finger was missing, offered to pay $500 to any woman who would sacrifice a finger.

Co-eds Guests at Dope Party.

Chicago, March 10.—Professor Frederick Starr, the versatile anthropologist of the University of Chicago, has achieved the "dope party." He gave one yesterday for students and co-eds, and the principal attractions were cigarettes compounded from "dope" used by the ancients, the wonderful Mexico jag-producers, a sort of clay that one smokes and immediately has vari-colored dreams; the skull of a micro-cephalic idiot, a freak with extra fingers and thumbs on all hands and feet, and unlimited quantities of ice cream. In addition to all the attractions enumerated, the professor produced his 1000 plaster skulls, but as they had seen service at former banquets they were not included in the new features of the "dope party." Fully half of the 50 students present sampled the "dope" weed from South America. Some of the girls declared that, according to their belief, the marihumana was no better than the ordinary "dope" in cigarettes, and declined to "hit it up." Those who did smoke saw double or quadruple and thought John D. Rockefeller looked like wooden money.

Lifted in a Little Cyclone.

Pleasantville, N. J., March, 10.—During a slight fall of hail at Bakersville yesterday morning a small cyclone suddenly developed and swept with great velocity through one of the principal streets. A pedestrian was picked up, lifted about seven feet in the air and then dropped as gently as a cat drops a kitten. No other point reports the appearance of the cyclone.

DIED.

In Charlottesville, Va., March 9th, Miss S. REBECCA FISHER, daughter of the late Jonas Fisher. Funeral from the residence of Mrs. A. F. Charles, 1215 King street. Funeral notice later.

Sea Level or Lock Canal.

Washington, March 10.—There is authority for the statement that the question as to whether the isthmian canal shall be made a sea level waterway or constructed on the lock system is one that need not be determined at the outset of the work. In fact, it is said that work could proceed for five years or more before this question would have to be decided without in any way retarding the progress of construction. The explanation is made that the same work would be required for the early stage of a sea level canal that would be necessary in the construction of a 66-foot cut. Thus ample time would be given for an exhaustive consideration of the subject and a thorough study of all the engineering problems involved before determining the character of the waterway. While it is not necessarily a legislative question, yet a decision to adopt the sea level plan would mean that a much larger sum would be required for the construction of the canal than Congress has authorized, and Congress would be called upon for a further authorization, thus indirectly bringing the question of a sea level canal before the legislative branch of the government.

The Executive and the commission have under consideration a strong recommendation in favor of a sea level canal.

Suicide of a Banker.

Suffolk, Va., March 10.—Augustus P. Cobb, a banker, and half owner of the Suffolk Knitting Mills, sent a bullet through his brain just before noon today, as he was sitting in his private office of the Suffolk Banking Trust Company, of which he and his brother, W. E. Cobb, were the principal stockholders. When the shot was heard, the employes rushed in and found him dying, lying in a pool of blood. The cause of suicide is not clearly known. The deceased was quite wealthy and had an income of some $8,000 a year and his domestic relations have always been happy. The cashier of his bank skipped town a few months ago, but the shortage did not impair the institution's finances. Mr. Cobb is a native of Brunswick, Maine, and came to Suffolk, about 15 years ago, when he started the Suffolk Knitting Mills, in a small way and made money rapidly. He was about 45 years old.

Railroad Accidents.

Buffalo, N. Y, March 10.—A dispatch received here from Warren, Pa., says a wreck occurred there this morning on the Philadelphia & Erie Railroad, a branch of the Pennsylvania railroad, and that five persons are reported killed and many injured.

Corry Pa., March 10.—Pennsylvania passenger train No. 6, Eastbound, the Harrisburg day express, collided head on with a freight train at Horn Siding, 10 miles east of here, at 10 o'clock this morning. Both locomotives were demolished and Engineer Martin McLaughing and firemen Fred Moran, of the passenger engine were badly scalded. None of the passengers was badly injured. The freight train crew reside in Erie.

Verdict in Death of Mrs. Stanford.

Honolulu, March 10.—The coroner's jury last night returned a verdict that Mrs. Stanford died of strychnine poisoning, the poison having been introduced into the bottle of bicarbonate of soda, with felonious intent by persons unknown. The fact that Miss Berner and May Hunt, the maids, will not leave Honolulu on the steamer China today, but will remain until the sailing of the Alameda, is due to police instructions to the two women. The end of the inquest with the verdict of murder leaves the Honolulu police as much without a clue as when Mrs. Stanford died.

The Chadwick Case.

Cleveland, O., March 10.—With the evidence all in, the lawyers in the Chadwick case began a battle to win the jury. It was the opinion of attorneys at the morning session that their arguments would not be concluded today. In that event, the case will go over until Monday, Saturday being dedicated to bankruptcy cases in the federal court.

Accident in a Colliery.

London, March 10.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Newport, Wales, says that the roof of the T. T. Anhiltz colliery, covering an enormous extent, has fallen in. Nine men were entombed, but all were taken out alive by the rescuing party.

Inhabitants Annihilated.

London, March 10.—Advices from Somaliland state that 9,000 Somalis attacked Merkah, a seaport on the coast of east Africa, having a population of 3,000 and annihilated the inhabitants.

New York Stock Market.

New York, March 10, 11 a. m.—Further confidence in the general situation was expressed by the course of values in the stock market this morning. The international ease in money and the growing conviction at the foreign financial centres that the Russian government is near the end of its power of resistance, and that consequently peace may soon be looked for, again were the inspiring bull factors. The buying was eager from the start. In the industrial list the feature was the revival of strength in southern and eastern iron and steel stocks. After the first hour the market reacted under realizing sales, but the declines are moderate and the undertone remained strong. Government bonds unchanged.

At Muncy, Pa., last night, robbers in the warehouse of Jacob Penn set fire to the place. The general stores of Mr. Penn and Smith & Son and two dwellings were destroyed, entailing a loss of $50,000. The family of Jas. Rogers escaped through a second story window. Firemen Daniel Gundrum and Charles Meyers were burned.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Suicide of a Captain.

Captain Robert V. Wilkinson, of the dredge Chesapeake, belonging to the Maryland Dredging and Constructing Company, committed suicide at an early hour this morning by shooting himself in the right temple. It is supposed that despondency superinduced the rash act. Capt. Wilkinson had an operation performed upon him last summer in a Baltimore hospital, the effects of which had not been eliminated. The deceased, from appearances, had arisen this morning at an early hour and partially dressed himself, after which he wrote letters to several persons, including a gentleman of this city, and after having placed them in envelopes and written the names of those for whom they were intended upon them, lay down in the bunk in his cabin and placing a loaded pistol to his right temple pulled the trigger. Later the steward called him to breakfast and as the captain failed to respond, the steward went to the cabin and found the deceased lying in his bunk with blood running from his head, his mouth open and the pistol by his side. He had apparently been dead about half an hour. The station house was notified, and word was subsequently sent to Dr. Purvis, the Coroner.

One of the letters written by the deceased was addressed to Mr. Lee Lash, of this city, in which he requested Mr. Lash to send his remains to an undertaker; also to notify certain persons in Baltimore of his death. Another letter was addressed to Miss Maggie Wellslarger, of Baltimore.

Dr. Purvis concluded that an inquest was unnecessary, and Mr. B. Wheatly took charge of the remains. He will forward them to Baltimore to night. Captain Wilkinson was about 40 years old.

The dredge Chesapeake and several barges belonging to the Maryland Dredging Company have been lying at Fishtown during most of the winter.

The River.

There was nothing new to note on the river today. All descriptions of craft—sail as well as steam—can now move up and down ad libitum. The river lines are being operated as usual. So far there has been no abnormally high tide, although the recent rains and the melting of ice and snow further up the river cause many to prognosticate currents and floods.

A dispatch from Williamsport, Md., says that at 9 o'clock last night the Potomac river was getting wild, and the rate at which the stream is swelling is viewed with considerable alarm. There is every indication at this hour of a flood. Since nightfall the water has increased rapidly, rising six feet within the first few hours, and is continuing at that rate. The river has leaped the banks at points, and is flooding the lowlands along the canal. Reports received from Hancock, Dam No. 5 and other points indicate a daugerous rapid rise in the river. The river is now 18 feet above normal at Hancock, and continues to rise at the rate of over two feet an hour. At many places the river has already reached the Chesapeake and Ohio canal. The Potomac at Cumberland has risen considerably, and at Piedmont it is reported high and still rising. The rising waters of the Potomac have caused an ice gorge three miles long, extending from two miles west of Cumberland to Cedar Cliff, where the ice is piled up several feet high over the West Virginia Central tracks.

Concert.

The University of Virginia Glee, Banjo and Mandolin Clubs reached this city today from Baltimore and will give a concert at the Opera House tonight under the auspices of the Old Dominion Boat Club. The house has been sold and a large audience will greet the boys. Mr. W. McC. James is the manager of the visiting clubs and Mr. J. E. Hume assistant. A number of Alexandria ladies will act as patronnesses and the concert promises to be one of the most delightful social events of the season. The programme embraces both instrumental and vocal music, and the members of the clubs have been well trained in their several parts. As the young men leave for the University tonight, the concert will commence promptly at 8 o'clock in order that the full programme may be concluded by 10.

After the concert the clubs will be entertained at the residence of Mr. A. D. Brockett by the Alexandria Alumni of the University.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Arthur Downey and Clarence Penn, arrested by Officers Beach and Allen charged with assault and beating Arthur Thomas; case continued.

A Change in the Weather.

The rainy weather of the past two days was followed this morning by clearing conditions and lower temperature. There was an almost steady downfall of rain yesterday, accompanied by a raw northeast wind, but after dark a lull succeeded, although the heavens remained threatening and the wind still held from an uncertain quarter. We are now nearing the close of a rigorous and long-to be-remembered winter. Ice and snow have been in evidence for months and mellow sunshine and a spring temperature are earnestly sighed for.

The regular monthly meeting of the Relief Hook & Ladder Company will be held tonight.

The Library.

The following list contains the names of the books added to the Alexandria Library during the month of January and February: Huldah, By Alice McGowan; The Abbess of Vlaye, Stanley J. Weyman; The Madigan, Miriam Michelson; Love's Proxy, Richard Bagot; John Percyfield, Hanford C. Henderson; Japanese Life in Town and Country, George Knox; Life and Letters of Robert Browning, Mrs. Orr; Life and Letters of Elizabeth B. Browning, John Ingram; Whosoever Shall Offend, Marion Crawford; Little Lord Fauntleroy, Frances H. Burnett; Pro and Con, Maggie Swift; The Sea Wolf, Jack London; The Prospector, Ralph Conner; The Man On The Box, Harold McGrath; The Simple Life, Charles Wagner; The Busy Life, Charles Wagner; The Hills Of Freedom, Joseph Sharts; A Ladder Of Swords, Gilbert Parker; The Blazed Trail, Steward E. White; Letters of a Diplomat's Wife, Mary Waddington; complete set of Thackeray's Novels; Kitty of the Roses, Ralph Henry Barbour; The Celestial Surgeon, F. F. Montresor; Deacon Lysander, Sarah McLean Greene; An Angel by Brevet, Helen Pitkin; Piney Home, George S. Kimball; Sherburne House, Amanda Douglas; Backgrounds of Literature, Hamilton Mabie; Japan an Interpretation, Lafcadio Hearn; The Voice of Nature, Charles Wagner; By the Fireside, Charles Wagner; A Library of Confederate States History, in twelve volumes, written by distinguished men of the South and edited by General Clement A. Evans, of Georgia, has been donated to the Library.

Personal.

Messrs. Wm. Recker, Louis Folmar and Hugo Herfurth have been appointed trustees for Emmanuel Luthern Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Fitzpatrick have returned from their wedding trip and will make their home in this city.

Mrs. Margaret Stone, who has been visiting friends in this city, has returned to Richmond.

Kersands' Georgia Minstrels.

Billy Kersands, the king of colored comeaians, and his big minstrel company, will be at the Opera House next Tuesday. The name of Billy Kersands is a household word with all lovers of minstrels through the west and this year he is surrounded with one of the strongest minstrel companies ever organized. Though this attraction is composed of colored talent it is giving one of the best minstrel performances on the stage. It is strictly first class in every particular and worthy of the patronage of the best citizens. The first three rows of chairs behind the rail will be reserved for colored persons. Billy Kersand appeared at Sarepta Hall in this city with Callender's minstrels back in the sixties.

Fishtown.

There were faint signs of life at Fishtown this morning. Some houses had been opened and several persons who are employed on the premises during fishing season were engaged in the usual spring preliminaries. Of course several weeks will have elapsed before any decided animation shall become apparent. Mud was ankle-deep in every approach to the place, and from all that can be seen those compelled to visit Fishtown will, at times, find rubber boots, if not stilts, serviceable.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late Miss Mary Elaine Posey took place from the residence of her parents on upper King street, this afternoon, and was well-attended, a number of friends and acquaintances of the family being present. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Wyatts, of the Baptist Church. The pallbearers were Messrs. S. W. Pitts, H. L. Poss, Robert Turner, Frank Creighton, Eugene Rodgers and Joseph Peake.

Slight Fire.

A fire occurred about ten o'clock last night in the residence at the northeast corner of Wolfe and Fairfax streets, which for a time caused much alarm among the inmates. Flames had suddenly appeared behind a mantelpiece, and they were gaining force when Mr. F. L. Entwisle arrived with an extinguisher and subdued them.

Official Visit.

Mr. D. A. Hayes, National President of the Glass Bottle Blowers' Association, will visit Branch No. 63 of that order in this city on Saturday evening. After the meeting Mr. Hayes will be entertained at a handsome banquet to be given at the Hotel Rammel to which a number of citizens have been invited.

Death of Miss Fisher.

Miss S. Rebecca Fisher, daughter of the late Jonas Fisher, died last night at the residence of Mrs. A. F. Charles, 1215 King street.

A dispatch from Middleport, N. Y., says that during the absence yesterday of Charles Marshall, a farmer, and his wife, living five miles from Middleport, a young man criminally assaulted their 13-year-old daughter. The girl is now in a critical condition. A posse of farmers are scouring the community for the young man.

A Favorite Remedy for Babies.

Its pleasant taste and prompt cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a favorite with the mothers of small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds and prevents any danger of pneumonia or other serious consequences. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears will prevent the attack. For sale by Gibson and Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

By the Tonic Route.

The pills that act as a tonic and not as a drastic purge are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They cure Headache, Constipation Biliousness, etc. Early Risers are small, easy to take and easy to act—a safe pill. Mack Hamilton, hotel clerk at Valley City, N. D., says: "Two bottle cured me of chronic constipation." Sold by all druggists.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Stiff's wharf on the Potomac, in King George county, together with the warehouse thereon has been completely destroyed and carried away by the ice, and the wharf at Somerset Beach has been badly damaged.

People living in the northeastern section of the city say they were awakened shortly after 11 o'clock last night by an explosion which shook their houses. Nobody this morning was able to give any cause for the disturbance.

George Roy and William Roy, colored, father and son, were drowned in the Potomac river, near La Plata, Md., Wednesday. They were oystering at the time, when a gale sprang up, capsizing the boat and drowning both occupants.

Beginning with next Monday the steamer Bartholdi will leave the foot of Prince street every morning at 6:50 o'clock for the Washington navy yard. This boat has been put on for the accommodation of the large number of employees of the yard residing in this city. The return trip will be made at 4:40 p.m

Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett gave an interesting talk last night at the temperance prayer meeting. Father Barrett also spoke and quite a number signed the pledge. The "white ribbon" is exerting a noticeable influence among a large class in this community.

Messrs. C. A. Shaffer & Co. will have for sale in the market tomorrow a fine lot of hyacinths, tulips, narcissus and other blooming plants; also fine lot of Boston Market lettuce, all at reasonable prices.

Mr. Bryan.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 10.—In an interview last night Col. Wm. J. Bryan said:

"The question of the hour is the question of corporate wealth against the people."

"Will the democratic party get upon the right side of that question next time?" he was asked.

"Well," he replied, "it is progressing and will progress in that direction."

"It did not get on the right side last time," was suggested.

"You don't mean that the democratic party is lost?"

"Well, if it was, it has found itself," he answered. "There are many hopeful signs" he continued, "President Roosevelt has called attention to abuses of the trusts and there is a wonderful educational movement going on. These questions are being discussed by the people as they never were before. Those who talk about these things now are not looked upon as disturbers of the peace, as they were a few years ago. Statements against the methods of Wall street which were considered almost anarchistic not far back, sound really mild beside what is being said today of the financial methods of the big speculators.

"I believe that the fight on the Standard Oil Company, which has been started in Kansas, will result in breaking up of the Standard Oil monopoly.

"As for the democratic party, I believe that it is in better condition now than it has been before for years. It is united and harmonious. Just now it is in the position of a man playing checkers, who has moved between two of his opponent's unprotected. He can afford to wait for the other man to move. Whichever man the other player moves, he will get the remaining man.

"So, if the republican party and the President fail to take up this question of corporate wealth against the people the democratic party can profit by the omission. If the President takes it up and the party fails to do so, it will result in a split in the party, which will make the democratic opportunity excellent.

"As for the suggestion that the corporations may attempt to get control of the democratic party machinery, the last campaign settled that, and it can never be accomplished.

"Eastern democrats have been taught a lesson, I believe. They thought they could win with the corporations. I believe they are convinced now that that idea is wrong, and that they will shape their course accordingly.

"No man can see very far into the political future, but I believe the future is bright for the democrats."

"My Julia."

New Brunswick, N J., March 10.—J. F. Cordova, the eloping pastor, who is in jail here awaiting trial on charges of assaulting his wife and abandoning her, begged his counsel, last night, to do all in his power to protect Miss Julia Bowne, with whom he eloped on two occasions. All day yesterday Cordova had been kept behind the bars and not allowed in the main corridor, where he flirts with Julia evey chance he gets. To the lawyer, Cordova said: "Protect my Julia. I care not how much punishment I get or how long they send me to prison for, but she must not be imposed upon or suffer. She must not be punished. She idolizes me and constantly shews her affection. She has been true and you must protect her." Lawyer Cook does not see how he can do anything when the girl is released from jail.

Escape of Convicts—Disturbances Increasing.

St. Petersburg, March 10.—Fifteen political convicts escaped from the prison at Irkutsk by crawling through an underground passage, which they had dug and which was so small that it would scarcely admit for the passage of a man's body. The prisoners were three months in digging the tunnel. Six of the men have been recaptured, but the other nine have disappeared and no traces of them have been discovered.

St. Petersburg, March 10.—The disturbances in southwestern Russia are on the increase, as the peasants are creating more trouble. Troops have been dispatched to the scene of the rioting to suppress the outbreaks.

SENATE.

The open session of the Senate today was very brief. As soon as a resolution had been adopted to defray the expenses of the funeral of the late Senator Wm. B. Bate, of Tennessee, the Senate went into executive session. Senator Cullom then made the report on the Santo Domingo treaty with the amendments agreed to. The report recommends the ratification of the treaty. The instrument as amended was read in full.

The Senate then took up and confirmed a number of the nominations which have been made within the past week by the President.

At 12:50 the Senate recessed until 1:45 in anticipation of the public funeral of Senator Bate.

Four Senats Seats Vacant.

The rather sudden death yesterday of Senator Bate, of Tennessee, leaves four seats vacant in the Senate. The deadlocks in the Legislature of Delaware and Missouri have prevented the election of successors to Senators Ball and Cockrell, while Governor LaFollette, of Wisconsin, elected to succeed Senator Quarles, retains his State office and will not quality until railroad legislation now pending at Madison has been enacted and signed by him as Governor. These vacancies are not likely to affect the ratification of the San Domingo treaty, as there are enough democratic votes assured for that instrument as amended to make, with the republican vote, the neccessary two-thirds of the Senate.

There will be a lively three-cornered fight in Tennessee for the seat left vacant by the death of Senator Bate. The candidates are ex-Governor Benton McMillin, ex Governor Bob Taylor and the present Governor, James B. Frazier. The latter's possession of the governorship will give him an advantage over his competitors, but McMillin, having canvassed the State for the senatorship a couple of times, is very strong with the rank and file of the party and may be able to bring enough popular pressure to bear on the legislature to offset the advantage of the governor. The fight is expected to develop considerable bitterness and election may be long delayed.

Suspected of Wife Murder.

Stamford, Conn., March 10.—George Butler, colored, is held at police headquarters while an investigation is being made of the murder of his wife, which occurred early this morning. Half a dozen negroes board with the Butlers, on the west side, in a small house. A shot awakened them this morning. Butler and his wife were found in bed, the latter with a bullet wound in her stomach. She died in half an hour. Butler said she was shot by some one else, but does not intimate by whom. The police suspect he is the murderer. A coroner's inquest will take place later in the day.

HAMLINS

Applied externally, it relieves the pain at once. Taken internally, it cures permanently by purifying the blood of the lactic acid which causes the disease.

Anthony Smith, of Mayville, Ill., says: "I had such severe rheumatic pains in my arm and shoulder that I could neither work nor sleep and was fast losing all hope of cure, when I heard of and tried Hamlins Wizard Oil, two bottles of which performed a perfect, permanent cure." Price, 50c and $1.

Exit Adjutant General.

The time honored title of adjutant general or assistant adjutant general passes into history this week with the issue of a general order announcing the abandonment of that title in connection with the army. For many years, probably as far back as there was such a thing as military organization, there has always been an adjutant, an important and useful functionary in the administration of an army, in the field or in camp. In our own service the adjutant system has been continued upward, until there was an adjutant general with assistants. The formation of a so-called military secretary's department in the army abolished the adjutant general's department by name, enlarged its functions and placed at its head an officer known as the military secretary. Subordinate officers in the corps, however, continued to be known as assistant adjutant generals, although it was provided that the title should be changed to military secretary on the retirement of General Corbin who is still adjutant general by name, although commanding the Philippine division. The military secretary of the army, General Ainsworth, saw no reason why the change should not be made at once, and the army appropriation act just passed provides for the change of title now. This will be announced to the army in a general order which will shortly appear from the War Department.

Father Helped Her Elope.

Piloted by the bride's father, after her mother had violently opposed her marriage, Miss Nora Naomi Pentz went to Winchester Wednesday night from Charlestown, W. Va., with Frank Joseph Kraich, of Philadelphia. They were married by Rev. Dr. James R. Graham. The bride's father, James L. Pentz, a merchant of Charlestown, accompanied them and gave the bride $100 in gold for spending money on her wedding trip, which will include Palm Beach and other Florida resorts. The parents of the bride were divorced some year ago and she has been living with her mother. In the meantime Mr. Pentz married again and paid his former wife alimony. He was favorable to his daughter's marriage and, it is said, the court will be asked to reduce the amount of alimony his former wife receives.

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh: the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflammed tissue to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tried of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cts. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York, will mail it.

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember, that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided by keeping their digestion in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, sells and guarantees them at 50c a bottle.

Pleasant and Harmless.

Proper Treatment of Pneumonia.

Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the proper remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be borne in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and by the proper treatment of these diseases a threatened attack of pneumonia may be warded off. There is no question whatever about this, as during the thirty years and more that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used, we have yet to learn of a single case of a cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used. It is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results. Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: "I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and prescribing it in my practice for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results." Sold by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.
